Overall

Manager Overall Evaluation

Rating: Exceeds Expectations

Comment: Overall, Jason has exceeded expectations. As BorgWarner's first intern in infrastructure automation—and with this being his first internship—there were many ambiguous expectations at the outset. Through his technical skills, professionalism, and dedication to excellence, Jason has set a benchmark for what success looks like in this role. His combination of high-quality output, strong initiative, and consistent delivery has established a standard that future interns can aspire to. Looking ahead, Jason's example can help shape our internship program and serve as a model for developing talent in infrastructure automation, while positioning him for continued growth and leadership opportunities in his career.

Performance Factors

Quality of Work

- Accuracy, neatness, effectiveness, attention to detail.
- Consider degree to which output is thorough and meets quality standards

Manager Evaluation

Rating: Meets Expectations

Response: Jason demonstrates strong adaptability and sound judgment when faced with ambiguity. He effectively navigates complex situations, identifies priorities, and delivers results without losing focus—an essential capability for success in dynamic environments. Going forward, Jason can leverage this strength by taking a more active role in shaping clarity for others—communicating context, proposing structured approaches, and influencing decision-making to drive alignment across teams.

Job Knowledge

- Takes active interest to learn and understand job.
- Understands job duties and responsibilities

Manager Evaluation

Rating: Exceeds Expectations

Response: Jason has quickly become a valued member of the team, establishing a strong focus on infrastructure automation and demonstrating a high aptitude for developing technical skills. Beyond his core responsibilities, he consistently exhibits enterprise thinking by exploring adjacent IT domains and gaining insight into BorgWarner's broader business operations. This curiosity and commitment to continuous learning position him to deliver cross-functional impact and align his contributions with strategic organizational goals.

Productivity

- Consistency and timeliness.
- Volume/amount accomplished in relation to individual growth and expanded experience and in relation to length of time on the job.
- Consider volume of work as it relates to employee's required duties to meet standards.

Manager Evaluation

Rating: Exceeds Expectations

Response: Much like his initiative, Jason has exceeded expectations in both the volume and quality of work delivered. He consistently produces results at scale without compromising standards, demonstrating efficiency and attention to detail that strengthen team performance. Going forward, Jason can leverage this strength by sharing best practices, mentoring peers, and contributing to process improvements—amplifying his impact beyond individual tasks and helping elevate overall team capability.

Teamwork/Interpersonal Relations

- Extent to which the employee cooperates with and effectively influences with whom there is contact.
- Consider attitude toward co-workers.
- Is employee a "team player"?
- Is employee's impact strengthened- by ability to work cooperatively with others?

Manager Evaluation

Rating: Meets Expectations

Response: Jason consistently demonstrates a positive attitude and strong collaboration skills. He is approachable, fosters trust, and contributes to a team-oriented culture. Feedback from colleagues has been uniformly positive, reinforcing his reputation as a reliable and valued team member. Going forward, Jason can leverage these strengths to build cross-functional relationships and influence broader initiatives, further amplifying his impact across the organization.

Initiative

- Self-starter
- Resourceful
- Commitment to continuously improve self and surroundings.

Manager Evaluation

Rating: Exceeds Expectations

Response: Jason demonstrates strong ownership and a bias for action by proactively identifying unassigned automation opportunities in the backlog and addressing them without waiting for formal assignment. This initiative accelerates delivery and adds measurable value to the team. To maximize impact, continue pairing this proactive approach with early communication and alignment to team priorities.

Coordination/Cooperation

- Willingness to help others accomplish tasks.
- Follows supervisory instruction with ease

Manager Evaluation

Rating: Meets Expectations

Response: In addition to his strong interpersonal skills, Jason consistently demonstrates a willingness to support others. He follows direction with professionalism and maintains a positive, solutions-oriented attitude, contributing to a collaborative and high-performing team environment. Going forward, Jason can build on this strength by proactively identifying opportunities to mentor peers and share knowledge, further enhancing team capability and cohesion.

Dependability/Reliability

- Dependability in meeting deadlines.
- Performs work with little to no supervision.
- Reliability in the execution of assigned tasks.
- Dependability in following instructions and amount of supervision required.

Manager Evaluation

Rating: Meets Expectations

Response: Jason has proven to be highly dependable and self-directed. He requires minimal oversight, consistently honors commitments, and delivers on time, reinforcing trust and reliability within the team. Going forward, Jason can leverage this strength by taking ownership of more complex initiatives and mentoring peers on accountability practices, further amplifying team performance.

Judgement/Decision Making

- Analyses problem skillfully.
- Uses logic and good judgment to reach solutions.
- Attempts problem before requesting assistance.

Manager Evaluation

Rating: Exceeds Expectations

Response: BorgWarner is Jason's first internship, and he has demonstrated impressive problem-solving capability. He approaches challenges with independence—making a strong effort to resolve issues on his own before engaging others. This self-reliance reflects critical thinking and resourcefulness, qualities that accelerate learning and build confidence. Going forward, Jason can amplify this strength by sharing his problem-solving approach with peers and collaborating early on complex issues to drive innovative solutions.

Safety/Environmental/Housekeeping

- Evaluate employee's safety record relative to accident log.
- Regularly attentive to safety and health regulations.
- Follows all Company safety and environmental policies.
- Understanding and commitment of proper housekeeping.

Manager Evaluation

Rating: Meets Expectations

Response: Jason effectively balances remote work and on-site responsibilities at the PTC while consistently demonstrating a strong commitment to safety and compliance. He adheres to all safety, environmental, and housekeeping guidelines, reinforcing our culture of responsibility and operational excellence.

Attendance

- Is punctual, observes prescribed work break /meal periods and has an acceptable overall attendance record

Manager Evaluation

Rating: Meets Expectations

Response: Jason demonstrates strong reliability and professionalism by consistently being punctual and proactively communicating his schedule. He honors commitments and manages time effectively, reinforcing trust and predictability within the team.

Objectives for Next Review

DEVELOPMENT PLANS:

Identify specific areas and topics for training designed to increase individual's effectiveness on present job and prepare for future job assignments. Indicate person responsible for implementing and time frame for completing

Manager Evaluation

Response: As Jason's internship concludes this summer, there are no additional development areas to assign. He has successfully addressed all key objectives and demonstrated strong growth throughout the program. Looking ahead, Jason should continue building on these strengths in future roles to further expand his impact and leadership potential.

PERFORMANCE PLAN:

Identify specific actions/behaviors the employee needs to either start doing, stop doing and/or continue in the upcoming performance period.

Manager Evaluation

Response: Jason should continue the behaviors where he consistently exceeds expectations, as these are key strengths. There are no actions he needs to stop doing. Looking ahead, an opportunity for growth is to proactively build connections beyond his immediate team—engaging with colleagues across different functions and being curious about how their work contributes to organizational goals. Expanding his perspective and network will strengthen collaboration and position him for broader impact.
